PIPING HOT WESTERN SWING PERFECT FOR YOUR NEXT EVENT!!

SOUTHWEST BISCUIT COMPANY

Howdy folks we're the Southwest Biscuit Company, a red hot country and western band serving up a piping hot mix of western swing, hillbilly jazz, jazz standards, and a little rockabilly for good measure. With a groove that is sure to keep you dancing all night long.

We play all over Southern California, and anywhere else that'll have us. We play western dance music, so you can be sure whether you're doing lindy/shag or bal or two-stepping or maybe even waltzing we've got something for you.

Our band is a six piece consisting of Jody Byrd on lead vocals, Jordan Bush on Steel Guitar/ Harmonica/Banjo. etc., Ray Bergstrom on Lead Guitar, Dan Weinstein on Fiddle/Trumpet and Trombone, Armando Wood on Bass Fiddle, and Dave Green on Drums.

We write a lot of our own material, but we always love giving some attention to the lesser played western tunes from those eras also, and you can always hear a healthy dose of Bob Wills and others at our shows.

REVIEWS

Tom Doel of The Doel Brothers.

"I have no problem recommending this band to anyone I know who is a fan of Western Swing, Vintage country, or even Rockabilly as I believe they will all get something out of this band, they are certainly up there with the other contemporary bands playing this type of material for me. Their musicianship is great, the instrumental harmonies with the lead instruments, and the tight rhythm section are what a Western Swing band is all about. The self-penned tracks are good and Jody has a great voice for the material, all in all a solid 10/10 from me."
